

The main activities of the sisters

The sisters in the Retirement Homes live and support the mission of the congregation according to their possibilities and talents: prayer, correspondence, embroidering, knitting or crocheting activities, interest in information.

All the others are, many of them, involved in various ministries and activities: ecclesial, social, administrative, educative or extracurricular.

