

Education of children and youth

In the dioceses of Abeokuta, Osogbo and Oyo, we strive with others to bring about the new world order, through the education of children and youth in nursery, primary and secondary schools with a special attention to the deaf, the partially blind, the physically handicapped and intellectually challenged.

